Giving youth a voice and place in the international freight and logistics industry in New Zealand

Customs Brokers and Freight Forwarders
Federation of New Zealand Inc.

What is the YDC?

The CBAFF Youth Development Council was established in 2006 and has structure and guidance from the CBAFF Council. It allows younger industry members to contribute and take ownership of the industry in which they work and to make real decisions that affect the international freight and logistics industry in New Zealand. The YDC aims to grow to meet new challenges and goals.

What does the YDC do?

- ✦ Gives youth a voice and place in the industry
- ✦ Promotes the involvement of younger industry members – foster belonging & ownership
- ✦ Promotes independent thinking and different points of view
- ✦ Develops processes to include ALL industry members
- ✦ Promotes education, training and courses to benefit younger members
- ✦ Actively promotes the industry to potential new recruits to school leavers and job seekers
- ✦ Identifies potential future leaders

Who is CBAFF?

"It assists member companies and individuals working professionally and participating in customs broking and freight forwarding, and is affiliated with the wider transport industry."
